Washington Relay ServiceDial 7-1-1 or Special Toll Free Numbers

Telecommunications Relay Service (TRS) is a free service that connects customers who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities with others, using either standard telephone equipment or telephone equipment that has been specifically designed for individuals with disabilities. Making a call is simple: dial 7-1-1 or the toll-free Washington Relay Service numbers listed here. A trained Communications Assistant will answer your call and relay the telephone conversation between you and the party you are calling. All call information and conversations are confidential. Relay service is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. This service will handle local and long distance calls. Long-distance calls placed for you can be billed collect, or to a pre-paid calling card, carrier calling card or third-party.

- Computer (ASCII) users can access Washington Relay Service by setting the communications software to the following protocols: speeds ranging from 300 to 2400: 8 Bits, No Parity; 1 Stop Bit; Full Duplex. For speeds at or below 300, follow the above using Half Duplex.
- Hearing-Carry-Over: HCO allows hearing individuals with very limited or no speech capability to type his or her conversation for the Communications Assistant to read aloud to the hearing person. The HCO user hears the other party's response.
- Spanish Relay: Spanish Relay is for Spanish speaking individuals with a hearing or speech disability.
- Speech-to-Speech: STS helps users with speech difficulties converse with one another, with a specially trained Communications Assistant acting as the intermediary.
- Text Telephone: Also called TeleTypewriter, TTY is a specially designed typewriter-like device that allows users to carry on telephone conversations in the form of text conversations with the Communications Assistant.
- Voice-Carry-Over: VCO enables people who have difficulty hearing on the phone to voice their conversations directly to the hearing person. The Communications Assistant types the hearing person's response to the VCO user. VCO requires a specially designed telephone.

Captioned Telephone Service (CapTel™)

CapTel™ allows a person who has hearing loss to receive word-for-word captions of their telephone conversations on their phone. To use captioned telephone service, one must have a CapTel™ phone. The captions are displayed on the telephone built-in display screen so that the user can read the words while listening to the voice of the other party. Users of CapTel™ service place a call using a CapTel™ phone, simply dialing the number of the person they wish to call. The CapTel™ phone automatically connects to the captioning service. If you wish to contact a person who uses a CapTel™ phone, dial 1 877 243-2823.

TTY Users and Emergency Assistance9-1-1

TTY callers should directly dial 9-1-1 or other existing emergency numbers in emergency situations. All 9-1-1 centers are now equipped to handle TTY calls. After the 9-1-1 dispatcher answers the call, pressing the space bar may help you inform the dispatcher this is a TTY call. Dial 9-1-1 directly, as using Washington Relay Service for 9-1-1 may result in a delay to getting your urgent message through.

Telecommunications Equipment Distribution Program

The Office of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (ODHH) provides services to the deaf, hard of hearing and deaf-blind communities throughout Washington. The Telecommunications Equipment Distribution (TED) program distributes equipment such as TTY's (Teletypewriters), TTY's with Braille, amplified phones, hands-free dialing equipment, PC-based video cameras and signaling devices to the deaf, hard of hearing and speech impaired residents of Washington State.

Eligibility for this equipment will be determined by the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services. Equipment will be provided on a sliding fee scale based on 200% of the Federal Poverty Level. Interested persons must complete an application form and have the form certified by an authorized professional. Contact ODHH for information at:

TTY Legislation

Under Washington state law, deaf and hearing impaired persons who are determined by the state to be eligible can obtain special tele-typewriter equipment allowing telephone calls to be sent or received by those with hearing disabilities.

Because these special services are to be provided at a consumer cost no greater than that paid by other consumers, this program is funded through a monthly surcharge on all telephone customers in the state.

Eligibility for these services will be determined by the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services. Interested persons should write to:

Give the agent the number you would like to call and he or she will stay on the line to relay the conversation. You can talk directly with the person you are calling. All calls and information are confidential.

This 24-hour relay service is provided at no cost to callers. Long distance calls will be billed accordingly.

Telecommunications Relay Service (cont'd)

TTY Legislation

Under Washington state law, deaf and hearing impaired persons who are determined by the state to be eligible can obtain special tele-typewriter equipment allowing telephone calls to be sent or received by those with hearing disabilities.

Because these special services are to be provided at a consumer cost no greater than that paid by other consumers, this program is funded through a monthly surcharge on all telephone customers in the state.

Eligibility for these services will be determined by the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services. Interested persons should write to:

Telecommunications Access Service
14th & Jefferson
P.O. Box 45301
Olympia, WA 98504-5301

Or call the office at: 360 902-8001 (TTY).

Telecommunications Device for the Deaf cannot be used on a party line.
